RAILWAY EMPLOYEES STRIKE

Extending to Many of the Railway Lines in the Middle States.

Engineers Decline to Work With Non Union Crews and Join the Strikers.

Washington, June 30.—Attorney General Olney's position that any car carrying mails is sacred from interference has aroused a feeling among labor unions. Kyle intends to offer a resolution in the senate declaring that the detachment of Pullman cars shall not constitute an offence against the United States laws.

Sioux City, June 30.—The switchmen and yardmen on the Omaha road have struck. No freights are moving.

St. Louis, Mo., June 30.—At midnight every wheel is tied up.

Lyons, Iowa, June 30.—Switchmen, car repairers and offers have struck. A complete tie-up of the Northwestern road is threatened here.

Chicago, June 30.—There was a stormy meeting of engineers, firemen and conductors last night. Some of those present told the officers of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers some plain facts. The engineers are apparently tired of working with non-union crews. The division chief of engineers fearing the engineers would strike declared the meeting adjourned.

Two hundred engineers employed on the Chicago, Great Eastern, Chicago Northwestern, North Pacific and Wisconsin Central at a meeting decided to go out this morning. They justify the strike by saying in the last letter received from Chief Arthur, it gave them authority to refuse to work with non-union crews. The Union Stockyards railway and transit company is completely tied up this morning.

Ludlow, Ky., June 30.—All shopmen on the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas railway struck to-day in sympathy with the Pullman boycott.

Denver, Col., June 30.—Three hundred members of the American Railway Union declare they will lay a petition before the United States court on Monday asking that the receivers of the Atchison railway be prosecuted for interfering with the mails. The petition sets forth that the employees offered to move all trains and requested to be allowed to move the mail car, but that the receivers refused to order the train out unless the Pullmans went along. The Atchison is to-day paralyted.

Hammond, Ind., June 30.—The situation here this morning is a waiting one, both on the part of the mob and the sheriff. The latter has asked the governor for troops to aid him releasing the trains of the Monon and Erie roads, which have been captured during the past two days and are still held.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 30.—The A. R. U. men to-day decided to call out the men at the Minneapolis railway transfer. This will result in shutting down the flour mills.

Chicago, June 30.—Southern Pacific General Manager's association: "Not a wheel turning on our system."

Chicago, June 30.—Five hundred employees of the Rock Island road struck this morning. The switches were spiked and other threatening demonstrations were made. The police were called for.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 30.—The Chicago & Eastern Illinois tie-up here is complete.

Pomeroy, Ohio, June 30.—All freight crews of the river division of the Hocking Valley struck this morning. No freight is moving.

New York, June 30.—The railroad strike is causing no little anxiety here among railroad officials but it is believed that the struggle will not extend east of Chicago. Trains are coming through on time.

Las Vegas, June 30.—There is no change in the strike here.

Kansas City, Mo., June 30.—The superintendent of the Sante Fe issue a notice to the strikers that if they do not return by noon to-day they may consider themselves discharged.

Tacoma, Wash., June 30.—The Pacific division of the Northern Pacific is not fully tied up, as some local trains moved yesterday. Employees of the Tacoma car shops have struck. No freight is moving.

Portland, Ore., June 30.—The tie-up here is complete.

Cheyenne, Wyo., June 30.—The local lodge of the A. R. U. has decided not to participate in the Pullman strike.

Dubuque, Iowa, June 30.—The Chicago & Great Western railway is tied up here.

Toledo, Ohio, June 30.—To-morrow will find all the big iron mills where men are working under the Amalgamated Association scale shut down. They will remain idle until after the scale is agreed. Fully 15,000 men will be thrown out of work in this part of Ohio valley.

THE CAPITAL

The Conference in Session—Hawaiian Islands Annexation.

Ottawa, June 30.—Theodore Davis, the English guardian of the Princess Kaiulani, who is over here as a representative of certain commercial interests, has been credited with having been charged with a mission to bring about the confederation of Hawaii with Great Britain. Mr. Davis himself ridicules this idea and believes that any such attempt would bring about a revolution. He says the natives wish to retain friendly relations with Great Britain but would never go beyond that. They want their independence.

The colonial conference met in secret conclave in the office of the minister of trade and commerce yesterday forenoon. All the delegates were present. Mr. Bowell was appointed president of the conference and Sir Adolphe Caron vice-president. It is understood that the whole forenoon session was taken up with the work of organization. Mr. Bowell read very carefully a prepared basis on which it was proposed that the conference should proceed. This was adopted. He urged that the imperial government be memorialized to remove all legal obstacles in the way of the colonies making preferential trade arrangements between themselves; that the Imperial government be asked to abrogate the most favored nation clauses in the German and Belgian treaties; and recommended, when these obstacles were removed, the establishment of a colonial customs union, and concerted action on the copyright question, cable communication and the steamship service. In this basis it was arranged that the question of a Pacific cable should be taken up on Monday next. A resolution was passed expressing sympathy with Mr. Bowell owing to the death of his son-in-law, George McCarthy. The funeral takes place to-morrow in Belleville and Bowell leaves for there to-night. The delegates being tired after the banquet decided to adjourn for the day at half-past one o'clock.

The colonial conference is sitting this afternoon, Sir Adolphe Caron being in the chair in the absence of Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, who went to Belleville to attend the funeral of his son-in-law.

The conference sat until two o'clock to-day. At the close of the session Sir Adolphe Caron said the whole forenoon was devoted to the notice of motion of Sir Henry Wrixon in regard to intercolonial trade. He refused to say whether anything had been done with the resolu- anything had been done with the resolutions. The conference will meet from 9 to 12 on Monday.

A NEW CAR FENDER.

People on the Track to be Scooped up and Saved.

Newark, N. J., June 30.—The Consolidation Traction company yesterday decided to adopt a new fender for all their cars. This action was made imperative by the grand jury. The new fender will be in operation by July 6th. It sweeps up a person and lands him in a wire cushion. If by any accident the fender should pass over the body a shovel worked automatically drops and picks him up and holds him until the cars are stopped.

Suffering Children.

Nothing is more piteous than the writhings of a child who is sick and unable to locate its pain. In most cases children suffer from disordered stomachs—or at least troubles of that kind are most common—and if not treated in time often result in death. Twenty drops of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer will alleviate the most painful and dangerous of stomach, chronic diarrhoea or summer complaint in the world, and no nurse can feel safe without having a bottle of the medicine at her elbow. At respectable druggists sell the Pain-Killer at 25c. for the Big New Size.

A Maine young man entered a store at Caribou and asked if he could buy a bicycle on "the insolvent plan." He was not successful.

MOST'S MURDEROUS VIEWS.

The Villainous Anarchist Justifies the Assassination of President Carnot.

A Friend Who is Unable to Take Care of by the American Government.

New York, June 30.—Here is a translation of Herr Most's editorial in yesterday's Freiheit on the assassination of President Carnot: "This was not only an atonement for the official murder of Ravachol, Vaillant and Henri, but also ofer innumerable judicial and police barbarities practiced during Carnot's administration upon innumerable anarchists and other workmen. Carnot did not only sign questionable death sentences in cold blood, but he was also in perfect accord with the scurvy trickery of the reactionaries and enemies of freedom. He declared himself a helper of all his associates in the crimes of the reactionary party, and at the same time prided himself as representative and personification of [illegible] which at present showed itself the direst and bloodiest mass of corruption that ever encumbered the earth, just as the bloody week in May looms conspicuously forth. Who shed tears over the body of the executed one. Only rascals and asses, but none among the oppressed and suffering mourn the tyrant's death; rather tears of joy and thanksgiving were shed by the enlightened of all countries. Then know, oh! ye rich and powerful, ye have brought it about that there is only one feeling left in the hearts of those ye have trodden down, a burning sense of rage and hatred. [illegible] to be purged from the face of the earth, like the poisonous worms with pitch, sulphur and fire, then will the heat howl not but songs of rejoicing and singing in your ears."

Herr Most concludes with a glowing eulogy of the anarchist assassin, and talks of him as a "brave good fellow," whose martyrdom when it comes will be well worthy of revenge.

NEW ZEALAND TROUT.

Where the Gamey Fish Attains to Large Proportions.

The classic ground of New Zealand fishing is in the south island, chiefly in the rivers which come tearing down to the east coast from the great central range of the southern Alps; those terrible snow waters which have given to drowning the name of "New Zealand death," today a mere thread in a wide desert of shingle, to-morrow a fast and furious torrent [illegible] bridge. It is in these rivers above all that the trout grow to be monsters.

It was in one of them that one rod in a single night took ten fish weighing 91 pounds; it was in a lake at the head of one of them that there was netted a trout of 35 pounds. But these huge fish have contracted the despicable habit of refusing to take the fly, and must be entrapped with minnow or live bait, and that, too, at night. In the lakes the monsters refuse to look at any lure offered them by man.

We have seen them cruising about of an evening picking up white moths, but we never yet heard that any man had succeeded in capturing one with a rod; and having ourselves failed disastrously in the attempt, we are, of course, the foremost to maintain the feat to be impossible. But in the smaller tributaries the trout will take the artificial fly, and these are the streams preferred by the enthusiast.—McMillan's Magazine.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT SITE.

A Short But Lively Discussion by the Members of the City Council.

The Mystery of the Site Being Revealed--Very Questionable Transactions.

The board of aldermen met yesterday afternoon at four o'clock in the mayor's office. The aldermen present were: Wilson, Harris, Ledingham, Humphreys, Munn, Dwyer and Vigelius.

John Boyd & Co. asked for an extension of time for receiving tenders for water pipes. The time was extended three weeks.

Thomas Bradbury asked for permission to put up a sign near the cemetery for advertising tomb stones.

An alderman—Why doesn't he use the newspapers?

The request was granted, Ald. Humphreys remarking that no doubt there would be requests to put up signs all along the streets.

G. F. Mathews drew attention to a sign on the trees of the park.

Ald. Wilson thought Mr. Mathews should be thanked for calling attention to this.

Ald. Humphreys—Will we not have similar letters about the Bradbury sign near the cemetery?

The following letter respecting the electric light site was read:

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Victoria:

Gentlemen:—I notice in the Victoria Times of the 22nd inst., a letter signed by J. Keith-Wilson, in which he states (referring to site No. 1—the "electricians" site):

"This was the very cheapest property offered, but when the council looked at it (they went in a body to visit the various sites), even its cheapness did not recommend it to them. Since then the price has been raised from the first tender of $3,000 to $5,000, and finally to $6,000. Here is a mystery of the site. As a matter of curiosity I would like to see this mysterious increase explained."

I may state that I wrote to the council on the 7th ultimo, giving the price of this site as $2,000. I wrote on the 11th inst., stating that the price for same to appear to have been $3,000, or $6,000 for the two lots, and explained how the error had occurred. I sent a 2nd letter, as called for by advertisement in the daily papers, and gave the price of the two lots as $5,000. I hope this will explain the "mysterious increase" referred to in Mr. Wilson's letter. Yours truly,

(Signed.) HENRY CROFT.

Ald. Wilson said the object of his letter was to refute a statement published in the Times. It was evident that Mr. Croft was a catspaw to pull the chestnuts out of the fire for someone else. On the list the lots were offered for $3000 in one place and $5000 in another. He at first thought the tenders were for two different pieces of property but upon investigation he found that the tenders were for the same piece. Mr. Croft said that he offered the lots for $3000 each and afterwards lowered the offer to $5000 for the two lots. The fact was that the piece crept up to six thousand dollars when the engineer recommended the site as a suitable one. Mr. Spohr, the owner of the lots, had called on him and said that the lots should be purchased as they were the cheapest. Mr. Spohr wanted to sell the two lots for $3000. Mr. Croft could not have known the owner of the lots. He must have been acting for someone else.

Ald. Humphreys—Mr. Croft did not ask $6000 for the lots. He only asked $5000. Mr. Croft's letter is just an explanation of his offer.

Ald. Wilson—It was just a put-up job to rob the city of $3000. He read the letter addressed to the mayor and aldermen which had been handed to him, in which Mr. Spohr stated that he had placed the lots in Mr. Holland's hands and he did not know Mr. Croft. He had never said anything about asking $3000 for each lot. He told the real estate agent that he would sell the lots for $3000 and give the agent the usual commission.

Ald. Ledingham here handed the mayor a letter that he had received from Mr. Spohr, which contained the same statements as the one read by Ald. Wilson. (When the members of the press asked for copies of these letters they were told that the mayor did not think that they should be published.)

Ald. Munn—It will be remembered that there was a good deal of hauling and pulling when the question of selecting a site was before the council. This could do the members of the council no good. He and other aldermen had requested that the council cut loose from all the sites offered and use one already in possession of the city. It was not right to bring into discussion matter that would blacken other aldermen, to condone the selection made by the council. If he was inclined to speak out he could say something that would astonish those present.

Ald. Humphreys—The letter from Mr. Spohr addressed to the mayor and aldermen, just read by Ald. Wilson, should have been read to the council when it was received and not kept back by Ald. Wilson until after the selection of the site, it might have made quite a difference. He had tried to get a similar letter from Mr. Spohr before the site was selected.

An alderman—What is the date of the letter?

The mayor—It is dated June 18th.

Ald. Humphreys—That was before the site was selected.

Ald. Wilson—I did not notice before that the letter was addressed to the mayor and aldermen. It was handed to me.

All the letters were received and filed.

An offer by J. H. Brownlee of $55 for a windmill at the cemetery was accepted.

Ald. Wilson moved that B. W. Pearse, W. J. Macaulay and J. H. Todd be appointed sewerage commissioners.

Ald. Baker asked if Mr. Pearse was a stockholder of the Terra Cotta Company.

Ald. Humphreys had no doubt that if anyone objected to Mr. Pearse he would withdraw.

Mayor Teague did not think that even if Mr. Pearse was a shareholder it would affect him.

The motion was adopted.

The following directors for the Jubilee Hospital were elected: W. H. Ellis, C. Hayward, J. L. Crimp, H. D. Helmcken and F. B. Pemberton.

Ald. Munn asked if there were any more communications. He thought there might be one explaining why the price of the electric light site had been reduced from $12,000 to $12,700.

The rates by-law was reconsidered and finally passed.

The council adjourned at 5:05.

EXHILERATING

In this warm weather, when the body is losing so much moisture in perspiration, the natural demand that this loss shall be made good creates what is known as an "exquisite thirst." Many are foolish enough to endeavor to quench it with drinks containing more or less alcohol, but the wiser ones use the juice of ripe fruit. The Island of Montserrat is noted for producing the finest quality of limes and the juice of these is bottled and known as

DEATH RATE REDUCED.

Gratifying Reports of the Dominion Health Bureau—Forty Per Cent. Fewer Deaths in Canada This Year Than Ever Before.

Ottawa, June 25.—The last report of the Health Bureau here contains the highly gratifying intelligence that the death rate in Canada during the last year was lower than in any previous year since confederation, being within a fraction of 40 per cent. lower than the best year ever before reported. Closer examination reveals that the greatest decrease was in deaths from Bright's Disease, diabetes, dropsy, heart disease, rheumatism and other diseases caused by disordered or diseased kidneys. Further investigation shows that where the cases of such diseases have decreased the people have within the year made free use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Consequently it is safe to say that the falling off in Canada's death rate is due to nothing but Dodd's Kidney Pills.

A TRAVELLER'S EXPERIENCE.

THE LIFE OF A COMMERCIAL MAN NOT ALL SUNSHINE.

Constant Travel and Roughing It on Trains Weakens the Most Robust—The Experience of a Halifax Merchant While on the Road.

Acadian Recorder, Halifax, N. S.

Mr. Percy J. A. Lear, junior partner of the firm of Blackadar & Lear, general brokers, 60 Bedford Row, Halifax, N.S., comes from a family of commercial travellers. His father, James Lear, was on the road in Lower Canada with dry goods for 25 years, and few men were more widely known and esteemed, and the genial Percy himself has just retired from the ranks of the drummer, after a varied experience as knight of the grip, which extended over 17 years and embraced almost every town and village in Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific. He is an extremely popular young man, a leading member of the Oddfellows' fraternity, an officer in the 63rd regiment of militia, and a rising merchant.

"How comes it that you are so fat and ruddy after a term of hustling railroad life and varied diet, Mr. Lear?" questioned the reporter.

"Well," was the answer, "it is a long story, but one well worth telling. I weigh 190 pounds to-day, and am in better health than I ever before enjoyed in my life. Two years ago I got down to 155 pounds. Constant travelling, roughing it on trains and in country hotels broke me all up and left me with a nasty case of kidney complaint and indigestion. My head was all wrong; my stomach bad; I was suffering continual pains and dizziness, and my urine was extremely thick and gravelly. I began to get scared. I consulted several physicians in Montreal, Winnipeg and other cities, but their treatment did not give me a particle of relief. One day I bought a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I made up my mind to give them a good trial. They [illegible] me, and I bought a second, third and fourth box, and they cured me. My stomach was all right, the dizziness left my head; so more lassitude, and all traces of my kidney disease disappeared. I was a new man, and gained flesh immediately, and have never been troubled since. I consider my case astonishing, because kidney complaint, especially gall stones, is hereditary in our family. It helped to hurry my father to an early grave, and an uncle on my mother's side, Dr. Whittle, of Sydney, Australia, had been a chronic sufferer from gall stones from his boyhood. I was so impressed with the virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I took the trouble to send Dr. Whittle two boxes all the way to Australia. Since my discovery of the benefit of these wonderful little pink coated exterminators of disease, I have recommended the remedy far and wide, and I could enumerate dozens of cases where they have been efficacious."

An analysis shows that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for all diseases arising from an impoverished condition of the blood, or from an impairment of the nervous system, such as loss of appetite, depression of spirits, anæmia, chlorosis or green sickness, general muscular weakness, dizziness, loss of memory, locomotor ataxia, paralysis, sciatica, rheumatism, St. Vitus 'dance, kidney and liver troubles, the after effects of la grippe, and all diseases depending upon a vitiated condition of the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, building anew the blood and restoring the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y. Beware of imitations and substitutes alleged to be "just as good."

KOOTENAY NEWS.

Kaslo's People Are Alive—The Political Situation.

Kaslo Times.

A meeting was held in Hotel Slocan on Thursday evening to consider the critical situation of the city caused by the late storm and the destruction of existing property caused by the deviation of the river from its usual channel, and to devise means whereby further destruction may be averted. Messrs. Buchanan, Green, McMillan, McAnn and Goodwin, with such of the council as chose to go, were appointed a committee to examine the situation and report to a meeting to be held the following day. On Wednesday the committee with Mayor Kane and Aldermen Green and Kane examined the proposed work, and concluded that while it might be possible to divert the river temporarily, the benefit derived might not compensate for damage to other property and the possible litigation which might arise. The committee therefore could not recommend any action at present, but that steps should be taken when the water lowered to confine the river to a proper channel.

At a meeting of the Kaslo council T. J. Roadley was elected city clerk in the place of A. R. Sherwood, resigned.

G. B. Nagle, well known in West Kootenay and elsewhere through British Columbia, seriously injured one of his legs while prospecting last autumn. It has grown worse since, and he will now be compelled to submit to amputation.

Kaslo river is still pouring a large body of water into the lake, and in spite of the several streams into which the current is separated after it passes Fourth street, much damage is being done. The main current, which bends to the north near Third street, has already carried away a considerable amount of land, and with it two or more buildings.

John Cahier had a [illegible] experience on Bear creek on Thursday morning last. It will be remembered that some time in December last Charles Brown and John Dolan left Sproule's for the purpose of locating a claim somewhere near the head of Bear creek. They took with them provisions enough to last them five days, and when this time had passed and they did not return anxiety was aroused, and an effort made to find them. But deep snow and continuous storms prevented any successful search being made at that time. This spring prospectors going out were reminded of the missing men, and Cahier was told by the gold commissioner to watch for any signs of them. Going along on Thursday morning about four miles up the creek he observed signs of former chopping, and proceeded to investigate. He found first snowshoes set against a tree and then an axe and a frying pan. Looking further he saw a tent-fly, partially fallen and almost covered with snow, and then after a little probing with his axe he saw the bodies covered with their blankets as they had apparently lain down. The hand and shoulder of one were exposed, but the other was entirely covered. He left the bodies as they were and hurried in to report. Until the inquest is held the exact cause of death cannot be told, and even then it may be difficult. There were no signs of any slide in the vicinity. It is probable they were either frozen to death as they lay or that they were smothered by the deep snow coming in on both sides.

(Nelson Tribune.)

John Grant, ex-mayor of Victoria, and member of the last legislative assembly, arrived at Nelson on Thursday. Mr. Grant was once a leader of the opposition party; now he is an adherent of the party that is sure to be defeated at the coming election. His visit to West Kootenay may result in the spending of a few of Mr. Davie's spare dollars, but it will not appreciably increase Mr. Buchanan's vote.

C. W. Busk, of Balfour, returned from a visit to the old Country last week.

J. E. Boss has decided to open an office at either Nelson or New Denver, and devote his time to developing mining properties in which he is interested. He arrived at Nelson from Spokane on Thursday.

Green Bros. in Kaslo are erecting a handsome store building at the corner of A avenue and Third street.

J. Fred Hume left Nelson for the Slocan district on Thursday. He will return in time to be nominated as the winning candidate in the coming election contest, notwithstanding the arrival in Nelson of Mr. Davie's "sack" bearer.

A Newspaper Report.

It Was Read by an Ottawa Government Official.

He Strongly Endorses Every Statement.

The Report Was Published in the Ottawa "Citizen."

It Referred to a Wonderful Cure by Paine's Celery Compound.

Some weeks ago the Ottawa Citizen published the particulars of a most wonderful cure effected by Paine's Celery Compound. The fortunate lady who was enabled to throw off the deadly grasp of disease and suffering is well known by many outside of her own immediate district.

Scores of women and men were aware of the fact that Mrs. Neil McKay, of North Hill, Lingwick, P.Q., had been doctoring for some time, but all the best efforts of her physicians were of no avail. Her strength was all gone; she was extremely weak, and had great difficulty in moving about. A few years ago she was a woman who weighed 185 pounds; sickness and disease reduced her to a mere shadow.

Mrs. McKay, at a critical period, determined to try the curing virtues of Paine's Celery Compound. The first bottle of it proved that it contained the elements that could banish trouble and sickness. The medicine was continued, with the result that seven bottles have made her a new woman.

These facts appearing in the Citizen, and read by Mr. Charles W. Ross, of the department of railways and canals, Ottawa, caused him to write the following letter:

"I have just seen in the Citizen another proof of cure by the use of Paine's Celery Compound, and I now write to corroborate the statements of Mrs. Neil McKay and Mr. Pennoyer, postmaster, of Gould, Lingwick, Que. I have personally known Mrs. McKay for many years, having been a resident of Lingwick for thirty years. She was one of my customers for ten years, and I have seen her at times not able to walk. She has been treated by several doctors without any apparent relief until she began to use Paine's Celery Compound; and although I am now a resident of Ottawa I have had occasion to see Mrs. McKay two or three times a year, and I know the statements in her case to be wholly correct.

Every cure made by Paine's Celery Compound in Canada can be endorsed and vouched for as strongly as Mrs. McKay's wonderful case. No false statements are ever allowed to be made regarding the great cures reported from week to week by the Canadian press. The cures made by Paine's Celery Compound are the only cures that stand thorough investigation.

A Boon to Horsemen.—One bottle of English Spavin Liniment completely removed a curb from my horse. I take pleasure in recommending the remedy, as it acts with mysterious promptness in the removal from horses of hard, soft or calloused lumps, blood spavin, splints, curbs, sweeny, stifles and sprains. Sewerage Commissioners' Appointment and Sewerage Assessment By-Law.

Whereas the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Victoria has by resolution passed on the 22nd day of January, 1894, deemed it advisable to extend the system of sewerage adopted by the said Council in 1890 in order to completely sewer the portion of the City of Victoria in the area bounded by the following streets: Douglas street from Herald street to Humboldt street, Humboldt street, and Wharf from Douglas street to Johnson street, Store street from Johnson to Herald street, Herald street from Store street to Douglas street.

And whereas a by-law to raise the sum of $100,000 for sewerage purposes upon the credit of the municipality of the corporation of the said city, cited as the Sewerage Loan By-law, 1894, received the assent of the electors of the said municipality on the 15th day of May last past:

And whereas under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon the said Council by the Municipal Act, 1892, the Municipal Act Amendment Act, 1893, and the Municipal Act Amendment Act, 1894, the said council may, subject to the provisions contained in the said Acts, pass by-laws for the appointment by the said Council, by resolution, of a Commission or Commissioners (not exceeding three in number in all) to manage and superintend the construction of sewerage work, and to define his or their duties, and fix his or their salaries or other remuneration as the Council may by by-law decide:

Therefore the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Victoria enacts as follows:

1. The said Council may appoint by resolution one or more person or persons (not, however, exceeding three in all) to be Commissioner or Commissioners to manage and superintend the construction of sewerage work in the area above described, and in any block or blocks of land adjoining the said area if the Council decide to carry on sewerage work therein.

COMMISSIONERS' DUTIES.

2. Any [illegible] or Commissioners shall be—

(a.) To carry out the said sewerage work as funds may from time to time be placed at their disposal, and to see that all contracts entered into by the corporation in connection therewith be properly carried out, and to do all other things necessary to facilitate the successful operation of the said work.

(b.) To appoint and fix the salary of and remove any Inspector or any other person (other than permanent officers of the Corporation) in the employment of the Corporation in connection with the said sewerage work, and to appoint other persons in their places if deemed necessary: Provided always that the Commissioner or Commissioners shall not have the power to appoint any such person for a longer period than their own term of office, and any such person can be dismissed by the Commissioner or Commissioners, or by the Council, and all such appointments shall be made subject to the provisions of this subsection.

(c.) To examine all accounts and claims in respect of the said sewerage work, and to certify the same, to sign all checks drawn in respect of the said accounts and claims, the said checks to be countersigned by the Mayor for the time being of the said city before payment.

(d.) In the event of the three Commissioners being appointed and one of them being absent from the province at any time, checks may be signed by the two Commissioners and countersigned by the Mayor.

(e.) To see that all moneys voted for carrying on said sewerage work be not expended otherwise than for that purpose and in accordance with any contract therefor when such exists.

(f.) To settle all disputes which may from time to time arise between the City Engineer, Inspector or Inspectors, or others, and any contractor or contractors for any work in connection with the said sewerage, and the decision of the Commissioner or Commissioners shall be final.

3. The said Commissioner or Commissioners shall have the power to reject any or all work done or performed, or material furnished or used, and materials proposed to be used in any such work, that in their opinion is not in accordance with the plans and specifications of any contract or any of them.

4. The Commissioner or Commissioners shall be appointed by the Council once in each year, and in case of incompetence or neglect of duty which is in the opinion of the Council of such a character as to render the person unfit to further hold the office of Sewerage Commissioner, the Council may by resolution remove him from office and declare his position vacant and appoint another person in his place, who shall hold office for the remainder of the term of his predecessor.

5. The said Commissioner or Commissioners shall meet at least once in each month, and at any other time at the call of the secretary upon reasonable notice.

6. The City Clerk, or his assistant, shall act as secretary at all meetings of said Commissioners.

7. The secretary shall call a meeting of the Commissioners whenever requested to do so by a Commissioner or the Commissioners, or the Engineer in charge of the works.

8. The remuneration of the said Commissioners shall be:

(a) For each and every meeting duly convened, $10.

9. The Commissioner or the Commissioners shall report monthly, or as often as the Council may desire, their proceedings to the Council.

SPECIAL RATES.

10. Upon and after the completion of the sewerage work the Council shall pass a by-law—

(1.) To assess, levy, and collect a special rate or tax per foot frontage upon the lots (except corner lots, which shall be only assessed at one-half said rate) on each side of the street or lands on each of the main or common sewers in which or through which the said mains or common sewers shall have been laid down; and also

(2.) To settle and determine the amount the owners of land or real property shall pay—

(a.) For the construction of branch sewers to the line of the street to connect any land or real property with any main or common sewer laid in or under the street upon which the land or real property fronts; and

(b.) For connecting any of all buildings on such land or real property with a branch sewer, and for making all necessary house or building connections therewith, and for laying a sewer pipe across a vacant space from the line of the street to the building and under such building, if requisite; and

(c.) To assess, levy, and collect the said amounts so settled or determined as a special rate or tax, in addition to all other rates upon the land or the real property so connected.

11. The by-law referred to in the last preceding section shall also provide that the amounts so levied and collected, as in the last preceding section mentioned, shall every and all be funded and applied from time to time in the payment of the sinking fund and interest of the principal sum obtained from the issuance of debentures under the "Sewerage Loan By-law, 1894."

12. The by-law shall further provide that the balance, if any, of the said principal sum remaining unexpended after the completion of the said sewerage work shall be applied, until exhausted, in further extending in like manner the the said system of sewerage in respect to the block or blocks of land adjacent to those comprised in the aforesaid area.

13. The said Commissioner or Commissioners shall manage or superintend any such sewerage work in the said block or blocks of land, and the provisions herein set forth respecting his or their powers and duties in regard to the management and superintendence of sewerage work in the area aforesaid shall apply to work of further sewerage extension.

14. This by-law may be cited as "The Sewerage Commissioners Appointment and Sewerage Assessment By-law, 1894."

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY TIMES.

TO THE ELECTORS
—OF—
Victoria City Electoral District.

Gentlemen:—The general election now being near at hand, and being a candidate for re-election, I wish to place my views on some of the questions commanding your attention, as well as to intimate the line of action which I shall take and the measures which I shall, if opportunity permits, support and maintain.

The party now in power have practically held office for over eleven years. Their policy has been an indefinite one on many of the questions requiring consideration. At the last general election the Opposition advocated reform in the land laws of the province, and have been able to make some important changes.

The privileges of allowing speculators and non-residents to take up large tracts of land has been taken away and the lands are now available for actual settlers.

By the efforts of the Opposition the assessment of the wild land has been much increased; the ad valorem principle of assessment according to the land value, is now the law.

There are two essential matters yet to be carried out in connection with the encouraging of agricultural settlers. First, the surveying of available lands for such a purpose and giving the necessary information by the Lands and Works Department; second, the making of roads to such settlements, so that the farmer may be able to bring his produce to market—such a policy as this must be adopted in order to develop and encourage the farming industry of our province. By so doing we shall add much to our wealth and prosperity.

The railway policy of the Government has not been a business-like one. From the time of the grant given to the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway down to the Nakusp & Slocan deal, the interests of the province and the welfare of the people have not been well guarded. On the one hand a corporation receives a large subsidy and an immense tract of land, free from taxation for ever; on the other, a private company is subsidised by guaranteeing the bonds to the full cost of the road as well as interest on the same for twenty-five years. One cannot but come to the conclusion that a Government policy of such character is likely to bring the credit of the province into disrepute.

Monopolies of any kind are to be deplored, but monopolies backed by Government aid and support are often the most difficult to overcome. Government aid to such an extent as has been given in the instances referred to precludes other roads from being assisted or built. As an instance of this we recognise the difficulty the British Pacific Railway will have in dealing with the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway and its existing rights. Thus by the action of the present Government in the past it looks as if the province were to be at the mercy of companies and monopolies who are despoiling the people of their heritage.

I am opposed to the executive using its power to make large appropriations of money by special warrant for roads, streets, bridges, and public works, without first submitting such to the legislature. Such a course of action leads to favoritism and corruption and is not in accord with the principles of constitutional government.

I have advocated, and will continue to do so, the reduction of taxation on improvements and the abolition of taxes on mortgages. The latter impost presses doubly hard upon the borrower, and the repeal of this law would be in the interest and for the advancement of the province.

The practice followed on the eve of a general election of promising aid to public works and institutions by members of the executive should be condemned, as it is attempting to bribe the electors with their own money. The independent electors should answer this by sending men to the Legislature who will do their utmost to remove such ministers from power.

During the past four years legislation has been brought about, chiefly by the Opposition, in reforming the School Law. The residents of the cities have now greater power over the management of their schools, and more is yet desired in this particular. I shall use my best endeavors to bring this about, so that our schools may be free of all political influences.

I have also advocated further restriction on Chinese immigration and the employment of Chinese by any company seeking charters or grants from the Legislature. I have advocated and still maintain that a clause should be inserted in all bills giving such privileges or aid to prevent the employment of this class of labor.

I also have advocated the necessity of employing residents of the province instead of non-residents or foreigners in the prosecution of all works or contracts let by the government.

It is impossible in an address of this kind to touch on all questions affecting the province. I hope, however, before long to have the opportunity of addressing the electors in public meeting, at which time I will refer to matters more extensively.

Hoping that my past record as a representative in the Local Legislature has been acceptable to you, I again seek your votes and support.

I remain, yours respectfully,

G. L. MILNE.

TO THE ELECTORS
—OF—
Victoria City Electoral District.

Gentlemen—As a candidate in the coming contest for legislative honors, and particularly as a labor candidate, I take this method of expressing some of the views I hold relating to the good government of the province.

I believe that heretofore, although workingmen have assisted largely in electing representatives to the legislature and parliament, their interests have not, generally speaking, been advanced or guarded; but on the contrary laws have been enacted whereby the greater burden of taxation has been placed upon the shoulders of the workingman, and monopolies have been fostered to the detriment of their interests and the country at large. Too many professional men and capitalists have made or influenced the making of our laws, and I believe that a remedy may be applied by workingmen being represented in the councils of our land by men from their own ranks—men who are not only in sympathy with them, but who are in touch with their necessities.

I believe that every man is entitled to an equitable share of what his labor produces; also that enterprise and ability to organize and direct labor to the accomplishment of large undertakings deserves special consideration, but not to the extent that it is often accorded by the governments of the present day.

I would advocate a reduction in the hours of labor, and consider an eight hour law should be established by the government and enforced on all government work.

Also the establishment of a provincial labor bureau for the purpose of gathering reliable information on the labor situation, so that intending immigrants may be made fully acquainted with the true state of the labor market in the province.

I believe that as a class the Chinese are injurious to the province, as they undoubtedly ridicule our religion and laws; introduce loathsome diseases and demoralizing habits; they trade exclusively among themselves and send what wealth they may acquire from our province to enrich their own empire. I believe the government should make every effort to lessen the evil which is the result of the presence of Coolie labor, and in the absence of laws similar to those in force in Australia, our government should, when granting privileges to companies and corporations, insist on a clause in the charters granted prohibiting the employment of Asiatic labor by such corporations or companies.

I advocate a liberal railway policy, feeling sure that we must have these most important highways to assist in developing the many latent resources of the province, but am opposed to the granting of monopolies in land for speculative purposes to companies to the exclusion of settlers.

I also believe that all religious questions should be kept out of our schools, being confident that the numerous religious institutions are quite capable of dealing with that matter.

I will more fully express my views on these questions at public meetings to be held. Hoping you can see your way clear to give me your support at the polls, I am,

Yours respectfully,

ARTHUR H. DUTTON.

TO THE ELECTORS
—OF—
Victoria City Electoral District.

Gentlemen—As I am a candidate to represent you in the Provincial Legislature, I wish to give my views on some of the important questions of the day.

I hold that each man is entitled to all his labor produces; therefore, no tax should be levied on the products of labor.

The road tax, the provincial revenue tax, personal property tax, mortgage tax, taxes on improvements, and all taxes on useful trades and industries are unjust and should be abolished.

To carry out these principles, I am in favor of raising all public revenues for provincial and municipal purposes by a tax upon land values, irrespective of improvements.

This tax would lower rents, raise wages, encourage industry, equalize opportunities, and thereby benefit all.

The present electoral system gives unequal representation, and calls for legislative reform.

The monetary deposit now required from candidates for the provincial legislature should be abolished.

I am in favor of passing laws to exclude Asiatic labor from government works and prohibiting any further Asiatic immigration. When Chinese labor can be excluded from any works, by inserting clauses to that effect in charters and grants, it should be done.

I advocate a reduction in the hours of labor; an eight hour law should be established by the government and enforced on all government works.

I am in favor of establishing a Small Debts Court, to enable merchants and others to collect accounts with as little loss of time and money as possible.

I am an independent supporter of the opposition, because I feel they are inclined to go farthest in the direction of the reforms which I advocate; at the same time I wish it distinctly understood I am for measures and not for men.

As canvassing by a candidate is, in my opinion, contrary to the spirit of the ballot, it is not my intention to personally ask for votes. Trusting you may deem me a fit and proper person to represent you in the legislature, I hereby earnestly solicit your votes and influence. Faithfully yours,

W. G. CAMERON.

Take Away

a stone from a foundation and it is weakened; a picket from a fence gives it an ill appearance, the vacancy destroys its symmetry, and the void is at once apparent. A hole the size of a pin's head in a kitchen utensil detracts from its usefulness, and a spoke from the wheel of a vehicle at once causes comment. It is the same with the mouth of a human being. An absent tooth gives the mouth the appearance of an "aching void." The symmetry is forever gone, the features are distorted, and already the process of decay has begun. In time other teeth "go by the board," and then succeeds a row of blackened and disfigured stumps. Crown and bridge work is a specialty in dental science, and of which Dr. H. B. Findley is a master. By these processes the mouth is made whole, decay of teeth arrested and the features restored to their original appearance.

THE ELECTRIC SITE.

The ratepayers may well feel disgusted by last evenings's discussion in council of the electric light station site; the facts disclosed do not give much assurance that the public interests are faithfully conserved by the aldermen collectively. Already the people know that their representatives have decided to purchase a site for $12,300, which will require another $5000 or so to prepare for the building. They may not be aware that Mr. Nuttall, the owner of the property, gets only $8000 of the purchase money, the remaining $4300 going into other pockets. It seems to us that it is rather a liberal commission for the city to provide. Other facts were developed last evening which may well call for examination by the citizens. The two lots on Rock Bay owned by Mr. Spohr were first offered by an agent for $3000, then the price was put up to $5000. The owner then in a letter addressed to the mayor and council stated that his price was $3000, which included the agent's commission, and this letter Ald. Wilson was actually carrying in his pocket when the choice of the council was made. Ald. Wilson now offers the excuse that he did not perceive the letter was addressed to the council, but he cannot say that he was ignorant of its contents or deny that he therefore failed in his duty when he did not impart them to the council before the choice was made. We may here pause to remark that Mayor Teague took a strange course when he ordered Mr. Spohr's two letters to be withheld from the press. Those letters are the property of the public, and not of Mayor Teague, who seems to have in this instance taken a little too much on himself.

Before leaving the subject of the site we may be permitted to refer once more to the strange idea that the council was confined to a choice between the two sites, namely, those belonging to Mr. Nuttall and to Mr. Spohr. Ald. Wilson, Ald. Munn and other aldermen have publicly and privately declared that they favored the location of the works on property already owned by the city. In that case we fail to see why any property offered for purchase should have been considered first. Manifestly, if the city itself owned a suitable site it should have been utilized; then the machinations of the real estate agents would have been floodedthe real estate agents would have been foiled and a transaction that bears all the appearance of a gross job would have been avoided. It seems to us that if all the city's interest in this business would have been gone about differently and with radically different results.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Mr. Buchanan's Mission—How Polling Places were Fixed.

The Nelson Tribune says that Mr. F. Hume and his friends "know that Mr. Buchanan is a Christian gentleman, whose only motive for entering politics is to better the condition of his fellow-citizens—and reform that wicked politician, Theodore Davie."

Nelson Tribune: It is surprising that the government officials at Victoria should have so accurate an understanding as to the centers of population in the north riding of West Kootenay and so inaccurate an understanding as regards the populous centres of the south riding. The north riding is supposed to be sure for Mr. Kellie, and every voter has a polling place located as conveniently as can be. The south riding is not sure for Mr. Buchanan, but to make it sure the polling places, as originally designated, were fixed at places which would be convenient for all the "gentlemen" who support the government candidate, however inconvenient it would be for the "laboring classes," who to a man are supporting the opposition candidate. The average man likes fair play, and this effort to disfranchise a large proportion of the electorate will not help the government party candidate in the south riding.

THE MINERS' DECISION.

Result of the Meetings and Consultations Held by Nanaimo Men Yesterday.

A Return to Old Wages and a Consequent Closing Down at Northfield.

Nanaimo, June 30.—A mass meeting of miners in the employ of the New Vancouver Coal Company assembled on the Green yesterday for the purpose of discussing the reduction question.

T. Dawson, chairman, in opening the meeting requested those present to confine themselves to each question brought up, so that the business before them might be quickly dispatched.

The executive committee presented a report from the company showing that it would be impossible to work all their mines at full wages, and dealing with other minor matters affecting the company in various ways.

R. Smith explained that every conceivable argument that the committee could think of had been presented to Mr. Robins, but without the desired result. It could be seen that the company had prepared a lengthy report, and as he was not in possession of facts to contradict them he could not state whether it was correct or not, so he would leave the question to the meeting.

T. Keith could only endorse what remarks were made by Mr. Smith. The reports from San Francisco in relation to the state of the market were conflicting, and therefore could not be relied on.

G. Wilson said the Northfield men had always worked under a low scale of wages, and unless they wished to continue so they would have to fight hard in order to gain more equal rights. He did not believe in one man getting all the good things while others went without. He wanted to know whether they were going to have equal rights or not; if not it was better for the company to shut down in Northfield. With that end in view they were present from Northfield to discuss the question reasonably with their Nanaimo brethren.

J. Sage claimed that Mr. Robins had violated his pledges because when the 20 per cent. was asked it was only for the purpose of helping the old horse over the hill. He claimed that Union and Wellington were paying the price, why not Nanaimo?

J. Carmichael claimed that the meeting was divided and it was evident that the committee was fighting for one mine only.

The chairman explained that the last speaker had misrepresented the action of the committee, which he stated had been fighting for the removal of the reduction at all mines. The only question for them to consider was whether they should demand the return of the 10 per cent. or not.

S. Critchley moved that the 10 per cent. be demanded back or the notice for a strike be for the first of the month.

M. Flynn stated that according to the rules of the association 30 days' notice would have to be given before a strike could take place.

J. Horrobin stated that the Northfield men had come here to demand their just rights, and they were determined to get them or close the mines down. He did not want the Northfield trouble to in any way interfere with the Nanaimo men demanding the return of the 10 per cent. It was necessary that there should be equalization, especially in the day men's wages. If No. 1 shaft was the only one which paid the company let them close down all the others and the men that were out would accordingly take what chances of employment they could get.

A Northfield man thought they should have the same wages as paid to the Nanaimo men.

M. Flynn stated that to-day half the men under the Vancouver Company were living on the verge of starvation; they were not begging, but simply living on the charity of the merchants. The best thing they could do was to demand equalization in pay and let the 10 per cent. stand over until the United States tariff bill was passed; he made an amendment to that effect.

J. Lago opposed the the amendment and claimed that now was a golden opportunity to get back the ten per cent. or the company would wait until the Australian coal flooded the San Francisco market, then the company would defy them.

R. Smith on being called for stated that the committee had made all the investigation they could make individually in reference to the market for this coal. When J. Lago stated that the committee were cognizant of the state of affairs in the San Francisco market he knew more than any one else knows. The speaker was not of the opinion that the duty had been taken off; if it had he was not aware of it.

R. Duggan moved a rider to the amendment that the committee be sent to Nanaimo to demand equalization in work and wages, and that the 10 per cent. and 15 per cent. be returned. The rider carried and the meeting adjourned until three o'clock to hear the committee's report.

At the afternoon session business of a private nature occupied the meeting until the return of the committee.

T. Keith reported Mr. Robins' answer as follows: "If this is insisted upon, the 10 per cent. and 15 per cent. for Northfield, we shall be compelled to shut down No. 5 and Northfield to-morrow, and if Northfield is shut down it will never be reopened. If this is done No. 1 will only work two or three days a week, and at the end of a few weeks will only work about five days per month." Mr. Robins said the Northfield men had never asked him to close down the mine or it would have been shut down long ago. Northfield either working or closed down does not affect the men in town. In answer to a question as to whether the company sold Protection Island coal for Northfield coal. In answer to a question as to what could be done with the Northfield men if the mine is shut down he said the outlook at No. 1 was not bright and the outlook at Northfield was getting worse instead of better. Further he said there were 40 men out of places in No. 1 to-day. It was only owing to the concession made by the men that he was enabled to keep Northfield open at the present rate. He said he was willing to meet the men on the passage of the tariff bill and discuss the matter with them pro and con. The company cannot improve matters at Northfield, but he was willing to do all he could to place the men in No. 1 shaft, if they were so willing, but he would like to meet the committee and arrange with them how it could be done advantageously.

On motion the report was received and action taken.

On motion the previous motion was adhered to.

The chairman explained that the question now before them is either a strike or a return to the reduction.

Mr. R. Booth corrected the chairman that the report did not state so.

Voices from all parts of the ground—No! no! shut down. It will be strike.

Mr. R. Smith endorsed the remarks of Mr. Booth.

M. Flynn explained the report more minutely.

T. Keith explained that it could hardly be expected that they could force the company to open mines which they would operate at a loss.

A secret ballot was then taken whether the men should accept a return to the old wages and thus close down Northfield and No. 5 shaft or let the matter go on as it is. The result of the ballot was 292 for a return to the old rate and 108 against.

The committee were then instructed to wait on Mr. Robins and inform him that they accepted his terms and report at the meeting in the evening. When the committee returned they brought the report that Mr. Robins wanted 30 days' notice to enable him to get his instructions.

The meeting adjourned until Monday morning.

MONDAY'S GAME.

The ball game on Dominion day between the James Bays and the Victoria Athletic club promises to be an interesting contest. There is much rivalry between the two teams, and the Victoria Athletic club team is determined to turn the tables on the James Bay boys, who have won the only local game played this season. Lenfesty has been practicing steadily, and has splendid control of the ball, and Smith behind the bat has confidence that he can handle Lenfesty's speedy shoots. The James Bay team put in practice to-day, Duck and Burnes are showing up well, and Scott will hold down second bag satisfactorily. The teams are composed of Canadians born, who will show the public that they are not a whit behind their Yankee cousins in playing the American national game. There will be an imposing ceremony at the commencement of the game. Mr. Dennis Murphy, the eloquent young law student, will deliver an oration on the achievements and possibilities of our glorious Dominion. Victoria, June 14, 1894.

A well known bishop once went to see the incumbent of one of the parishes under his supervision. The call was made in the morning and during it a heavy downpour of rain came on, which caused the vicar to ask his guest if he would stay to dinner. This the bishop consented readily enough to do, much to the dismay of the vicar's wife, who had nothing but what is termed a "scrap meal" prepared for her household. The good lady, however, hurried off to the kitchen as soon as the new arrangement was made known to her, and set to work as quickly as possible to make a "sweet dish" for the second course. Meanwhile her husband begged his guest to relieve himself of his thick coat, whereupon the bishop laughingly replied, "Yes, I'll go, out in the hall and hang it up myself; thoroughly at home. And this he proceeded to do. Now, as is frequently the case in old country houses, the passage was extremely dark, consequently the place where the clothes pegs were situated was quite void of any light whatever. But the visitor, having undertaken to hang up his possession himself, perseveringly groped about until he found a vacant peg. To this he suspended his cloak and was preparing to retrace his steps to the drawing-room, when a heavy hand dealt him three smart knuckle blows on the head, whilst a wrathful voice bade him "Take that, and that, and that, for asking the bishop to dinner."—The Churchman.

—The Griffith Faust company gave a very pleasing performance of that powerful play at the Victoria theatre last night before a very fair sized audience. Mr. Griffith is an actor of ability, and he has four or five performers in his company high above the average. As to Mr. Griffith, aside from a slight tendency to rant at times and the introduction of certain lines in his part, nothing but praise can be given. W. L. Robberts as Valentine was excellent, as was Mr. Collins as Faust. Miss Martin, who played Marguerite, seemed a disappointment at first, but as the piece progressed she grew in favor, and at the end was praised. Mrs. Vanderhoff as Dame Martha was applaudable. There were some unique scenic effects introduced with great effect. The new orchestra under Professor Zilm made its appearance, and fully merited the great applause given. The overture from Faust and the clarionet solo given by George Wilkinson were the best numbers. The show should be well patronized to-night.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

The Appeal in Mr. Cotton's Case Dismissed by the Divisional Court.

Mah Sui, who keeps a wash house at the corner of Fort and Quadra streets, has issued a writ through his solicitors, Schultz & Morphy, against M. J. Conlin, city sanitary inspector, for $1000 damages for false imprisonment. The defendant's clothing was at the wash-house, and when he went after it the Chinaman demanded some money, which was not given him and Mr. Conlin didn't get his clothes, whereupon, it is claimed by plaintiff, he caused plaintiff's arrest. The Chinaman was imprisoned for three hours when he was released.

The Divisional Court, consisting of Justices Crease and McCreight, this morning gave judgment in the Gordon-Cotton appeal, which was argued before them yesterday. The appeal was dismissed with costs and as a consequence Mr. Cotton will have to remain in gaol. This was an appeal from an order made by Mr. Justice Walkem amending Mr. Justice Drake's order committing Mr. Cotton to prison. Mr. Justice Drake's order of committal omitted the words prescribed by statute, "before Mr. Justice Drake," in the caption of the order, and Mr. Justice Walkem's order amended the defect after the order of committal had been executed and Mr. Cotton imprisoned. The appellant contended that marginal rule 266 did not go so far as to enable the court to correct an error of this kind, as it was a substantial one, and also that Mr. Justice Walkem had no jurisdiction to make the order. The court held that the error corrected was just such an one as the rule aimed at, and dismissed the appeal with costs. Mr. Campbell for the appellant and Mr. Davis for the respondent.

IS YOUR LITTLE ONE LOSING OR GAINING FLESH?

If the baby is healthy and well fed it should increase steadily in weight. Too often the hot, oppressive summer weather retards growth and development; this is always the case when the baby is improperly nourished.

If the little one cannot be sustained fully and regularly on the bountiful supply of healthy milk from its mother's breast, it should receive a daily diet of pure Lactated Food.

When the little one is kept on Lactated Food there is a perceptible daily growth, and a guarantee that no summer troubles will endanger life and health. The manufacturers of Lactated Food have on file hundreds of letters from thankful mothers testifying to the fact that the great food is a preventive of dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera infantum.

This summer we hear of hundreds of mothers using Lactated Food who never used it before.

A grand work is being done; the babies who are fed on the Food are progressing famously; they are increasing in weight and rest and sleep well. Are you using Lactated Food, dear mother, for your weak and sickly infant? Give it a trial for one week. The results will surprise you.

GREAT SURPRISE PARTY.

Stirring Addresses From Messrs. Beaven and Dutton Well Received.

The goverment candidates met with a big surprise at Spring Ridge last evening when they proceeded to address the electors of that section. There was danger of the meeting falling through, for neither the finance minister nor the premier were present to help out the recruits, Messrs. Helmcken, Rithet and Braden, who each delivered very short, set addresses, and got through by half-past nine although the meeting did not open until considerably past eight o'clock. Copies of the Premier's famous Nakusp & Slocan speech and the finance minister's budget speech were plentifully scattered through the hall, and an attempt to arouse the "Young Canadian" sentiment was made in the introduction of Messrs. Charles Gregg and S. D. Schultze, who did the preliminary sparring.

Mr. Thomas Haughton was voted to the chair, and asserted that in accepting the position he was a supported of the present government, which he credited with all the progress of the province during their tenure of office. He thought this progress would continue if they were returned to power, of course excepting circumstances over which they had no control. He referred to the departure that is being made in this election in the introduction of young Canada and prophesied that in the future the young men would be the ones who would frame the plans for the government of this country.

Mr. Gregg was introduced as the first representative of this new element. He said he was a supporter of the present government, which he called "the government of progress," and blamed the opposition for saying the government were responsible for the hard times. No matter what might be said about the government's treatment of the Mainland, it could not be denied that the interests of Victoria had been well looked after, so that it would be rank ingratitude not to return the present government. Take the parliament buildings which, when finished, would be the handsomest north of San Francisco. (Oh! oh!) He accused the opposition of being against every motion for the betterment of the country, and on that account asked the hearty support of the electors, and particularly the workingmen, in returning the government ticket.

S. D. Schultze occupied the attention of the meeting for a few minutes in a similar strain, and gave each of the candidates a certificate of character by way of recommendation to the electors.

Mr. R. P. Rithet was the first of the candidates called upon. He had became a candidate on the government side for several good reasons, the chief one of which, he said, was the progressiveness of the government; they were bold in their financial policy, but in his judgment they had only shown proper business enterprise in the management of the finances of the country. He thought that the plan of the opposition was to have a staff of men to collect and spend the revenue; but he would have instead men who could devise and plan, not merely for the present but for the future. As to the land laws, it would be his best endeavor to support any plan which would have for its object the holding of the land for the people. He thought the condition of the finances could without fear of calamity be extended in borrowing, and was of opinion that it would be a short-sighted policy, when we could borrow money at 3 1-2 per cent., not to get some of that money to use it in developing the province. Another point he would strive after would be the harmonizing of the relations between labor and capital, as it was to the interest of both that one should not antagonize the other. He with the other candidates was in favor of the present non-sectarian system of education; there need be nothing to fear on his account at least in that respect. The speaker closed a rather short speech with the request that the whole ticket be returned.

Mr. Braden announced himself a supporter of the present government in the interests of the working classes, for whom there should be some protection, as there was for the lawyers and doctors. The reason why the workingman had not had justice done him was because his wants had not been known. He spoke of the fact that any man can come here and take both our municipal and government contracts, take our money and leave us so much worse off. Mr. Braden contrasted the actions of the respective leaders of the government and opposition, and endeavored to draw a moral from the activity of Mr. Davie in being all over the country almost at one time—at Vancouver, up the Fraser, at Nanaimo and Alberni, everywhere—while the leader of the opposition was warming his shins at home.

At this point the Hon. Robert Beaven entered the hall and the speaker was interrupted for several moments by the applause which greeted the newcomer, who quietly bowed. Applause was renewed as he took his seat, and the speaker proceeded to defend the actions of Mr. Rithet in paying men a dollar a day. Mr. Braden read a resolution of Mr. Beaven's in the house with a view to making loan by-laws subject to a petition by half the owners in value in the city, which he said was nothing more than a law to put working men out of a job.

Mr. H. Dallas Helmcken was very cordially received. He said the candidates were warm supporters and loyal adherents of the present government, which, he took it, from present indications, would sweep the country. He endorsed the expressions of Mr. Rithet and Mr. Braden and was going to work with all his power for the government, not only in the interest of the province at large but especially for Victoria. He created a good deal of amusement by stating that although a junior to his three colleagues, he had, [illegible] before they did. It was, he considered, a great honor that he, a young man, born here, should now be coming forward to ask the suffrages of his fellow citizens. Respecting his expressions of creed as made at the last meeting, it would be his endeavor to relieve some of the hardships which he had witnessed in the operation of the law of landlord and tenant. He gave an instance of this which had just come to light where a good deal of injustice had been done. The law ought to be amended so that the landlord should have a preferential claim up to a certain time, and, after that, to rank as an ordinary creditor. Then the mechanics' lien act, which at present he wholly abhorred (and so did the court), required amending, and he felt that we had enough brains to make a good mechanics' lien act. He would advocate that the workingman should be regularly paid at least once a fortnight. To do away with all possibility of injustice it was the duty of the owner to look into the fact that he was paying a working price to the contractor so that the latter could pay his men. To introduce a bill of this character would be one of his first objects. The loggers' lien law especially required amending; they practically had no security, because the liens on logs could not be made to stick. The preferential claims of clerks and others engaged in business required attention. He gave several instances where great hardships had been done under what is called equitable, and not legal, execution, in which the claims of the employee did not rank. He also commended the government's policy in the working of the labor bureau, of the good of which he instanced the settlement of the recent dispute on the government buildings. They were striving to put the relations of employer and employee on such a footing that each would have the confidence of the other. Regarding the remarks of his friend, Mr. Alex. Wilson, that Mr. Helmcken belonged to a class who did not want the small debts court, Mr. Helmcken said he had seen this court in practice and had witnessed under it the most horrid abuses. As a matter of fact, the present judicial system supplied all that was necessary in the monthly sittings of the county court, and all that was required was to make these sittings more frequent.

Mr. Ed. Bragg was called upon by the chairman and addressed himself to the workingmen from the industrial aspect. The next four years we want to see the city and province built up, and there only remained a few days to pick out the men who would attain that object. Mr. Bragg went into a fervid denunciation of Mr. Beaven, and in stating in an explanatory manner that he did not wish to be personal in his remarks was greeted with derisive laughter and cheers. In referring to the railway policy the speaker expressed the hope that if Mr. Rithet were elected by the end of his term we would have some better means of communication with the outside world. He could not understand why Mr. Cameron, as a representative of single tax had linked himself with the opposition, seeing that the premier had gone as far as possible in this line. Mr. Cameron should go in as an independent, so as to be free to support any measure brought forward to improve the land laws.

At this point there was a probability of the meeting closing, as there seemed to be no one available for a speech to kill time till it would be decent from to adjourn, but the contingency did not arise, for a very definite demand was made for "Beaven" from all parts of the building, and as that gentleman arose to respond to the invitation the cheers became perfectly uproarious. Mr. Beaven, with all the coolness of the veteran which he is walked up the hall towards the platform amid a perfect storm of cheers and plaudits, and on reaching the chairman and bowing it was some time before silence reigned. There were cries of "give it to them hot," "go for them well," and other encouraging remarks. It was only too plain that the opposition were four to one in the meeting, for it was then the enthusiasm broke out. The chairman asked for a fair hearing for the leader of the opposition, but that was scarcely necessary.

Mr. Beaven thanked him, and referred to the rather unexpected pleasure it was to him to have an opportunity of addressing the electors in toat section of the city He had come more as a listener, to hear what the candidates defending the course of the Hon. Mr. Davie had to say, and he had attended a meeting of the electors held by the government supporters in the theatre for the same purpose, but it appeared that if the other side had not Mr. Beaven to speak about they would have nothing to say. (Applause.) There was not the slightest doubt in his mind but that if the people could realize the situation of the province, the actual condition of affairs to-day, even those gentlemen (the candidates for the government) would oppose the Hon. Mr. Davie. (Great cheers and cries of "No, no.") He would refer to the proposition which Mr. Helmcken had made about the mechanics' lien law. Mr. Brown, when he came to the house in 1891, had a statute on this very question. He had gone into the matter very carefully. He had got a lawyer (perhaps he made a mistake there, but he did not get Mr. Helmcken—(cheers and laughter)—and prepared a very elaborate bill. The underlying principle of this bill, and it was a new feature in machanics lien acts, was to obliterate what is called the material man, and simply make the law to protect the workingman, the man who puts his labor into the work. It was held that the difficulty about a mechanics' lien act was to produce an act which would protect the material man and at the same time the laborer. Mr. Brown's idea was to protect the workingman. Now the records of the house will show that the principal opponent of this measure was Mr. Theodore Davie, who did his very best to defeat the measure. It became law, though in a very mutilated shape perhaps, and there is one feautre in it which if it is enforced must of necessity protect the laboring man, as any one can see who takes the trouble to read the act, which says that before the contractor can get the money from the owner of the building that contractor must produce a receipted pay list showing that the men have been paid their wages. (Cheers.) Now if this is done how in the name of common sense can the laboring man be done out of his pay? (Hear, hear.) Mr. Beaven had applied the act when he was mayor of this city, and it had worked all right; the workingman got his money; perhaps the material man did not always, but then he was working under different circumstances. He is not obliged to part with his material unless he likes until he has got his money, or security for it, but the workingman has only his labor, and he must live. However, even if Mr. Helmcken is not in the legislature, he will find that there are men there who will always be ready to accept a hint on improving the mechanics' lien law if he should feel disposed to give one. One of the favorite occupations of the supporters of the government is to go around button-holing the electors (of course the government have a great deal of money to spend in this sort of thing) and tell them stories that they would not dare repeat in public. One of these absurd stories is that if the opposition got into power the erection of the parliament buildings would be stopped. Now that was the crudest nonsense that could be spoken, and any intelligent man can see that the money has been borrowed under a special act for that particular purpose and must be spent for it and it alone. The money has been received for that purpose, and unless the government are acting improperly and applying it to some other purpose (which would be nothing new for Mr. Theodore Davie's government to do) it is there in the treasury. (Laughter.) If the opposition got into power they would have no choice but to go on just the same. As a matter of fact, when the bill for the construction of the buildings was up in the house the opposition came to the rescue of the government in passing it, Mr. Beaven, Dr. Milne and Mr. Grant all voted for it, when some of the government's supporters went against them. Therefore it would be idle folly to say that the buildings would not be proceeded with. Then again it was used as an election cry that the province would be starved if the opposition were returned. Now it is not the government's own personal property that they spend, it is the money of the people. He could assure the electors that he understood this country was to be developed and required the expenditure of large sums of money in so doing, but what the opposition complained of was the extravagant and useless waste of money which had characterled the present government. Take the appointment of Dr. Davie, the brother of the premier, who had received $200 a month for fifteen months. Why could not the chairman of the meeting here, or any one of the audience, get that amount out of the treasury every month? Therefore this expenditure should cease. (Applause and cheers.) If you will take the two Davies, the premier and his brother, you will find the cost they have been to the country run up into the thousands and thousands of dollars. Col. Baker draws $1000 from the treasury and takes a trip to England on it and endeavors to float his Cranbrook scheme. (Cheers.) It is not that the opposition object to see the country developed and roads, bridges and other conveniences made for the settlers, but they say that this useless expenditure of thousands and thousands of dollars in salaries for men who are not wanted should cease. (Cheers.) The government takes care to hide these things from the electors; they are very silent on these points, as well as to the true condition of the finances of the province. It is not in their interest just now to go too closely into these matters, but it was nevertheless a fact, and Mr. Beaven had stated it on a public platform before, that when the legislature rose after the last session there was not sufficient money in the treasury without borrowing to replace the trust funds used and to pay the members' sessional allowance. They must have known that they could not hide that state of things very long, and it is just as well that the people knew it now. But they have had a majority of members in the house for the last four years who would endorse anything the government did, and now was the time for the electors to say if they would send back for another term the men who would do the same thing. Practicaly speaking the province has been without a legislature for the last three or four years; they had simply a dictator, who legislated by order in council and afterwards got his men in the house to endorse his actions and make them law. Mr. Beaven went into the absurdity of the redistribution bill, which he said was not fair, and instanced two or three small constituencies with an aggregate number of voters of only two or three hundred, and yet who had as great a voice in the affairs of the country as the city of Vancouver or Victoria. Personally he was in favor of giving the outlying districts a greater share of representation than the large centres, because the man who went out to develop the country and suffered the hardships of a pioneer should be better represented. Mr. Vernon, who is now seeking re-election, lauds this redistribution bill, and excuses his vote on the parliament buildings by telling his people up country that it was only by voting for the parliament buildings that he was able to induce the government to introduce this redistribution bill. Of course all present knew what Mr. Vernon had called the Canada Western scheme, and they had heard what the solicitors for the Canada Western company, of which Mr. Rithet was a member, had written to the government regarding the taking off of the tax to allow the company to import Chinamen to build the road. Of course he had a perfect right to ask the government to do this thing, but then Mr. Beaven thought he ought to explain his position to the electors on the point—(great cheering)—because the speaker's own impression had always been that the Chinamen were the greatest detriment to this province in fact, that a great deal of the present hard times was due to the presence of Chinamen on this coast. (Cheers.) But he could show the electors where in vote after vote both Mr. Davie and Mr. Turner had voted against the insertion in bills before the house a clause prohibiting Chinamen from working on undertakings which the bills authorized, and yet these are the men that the workingmen are asked to return to power for another four years. Another thing the opposition did in this direction was to ask the Dominion government to raise the poll tax on Chinamen from $50 to $100. Did the Messrs. Davie and Turner vote for it? Not much. (Great laughter.) Of course these votes may not be the sentiments of the men, but Mr. Beaven thought it was one of the greatest evils that Chinese should be encouraged in this province. (Hear, hear.) Mr. Beaven had been told that to insert a clause of such a character would make any act or contract unconstitutional. Well, while chief commissioner of lands and works years ago he had had the clause inserted, and it worked all right, notwithstanding the fact that it was said to be unconstitutional. (Cheers.) Mr. Braden had spoken about the benefit of the franchise being enjoyed by every man now, but who assisted in having that law brought into effect? That as well as the ballot act was brought into operation years ago. Usually he did not like to speak of what he had done; it was one of the last wishes of his to speak of his works, but when he was driven into a corner like this where others took the credit of it, he felt bound to remind them to whom the credit belongs. (Cheers.) As to the finances of the country, he had told the people the real state of affairs, and neither Mr. Turner nor anyone else could deny it. The figures could be shown. Mr. Beaven showed how much out the finance minister was in estimates of revenue and expenditure during his tenure of office, and that for the last six months of the present fiscal year the expenditure exceeded the revenue by half a million dollars. They had spent the Dominion government subsidy towards paying the interest on the bonds of the Shuswap & Okanagan railway, and the province will have to pay the guarantee on these bonds, which at present will amount to about $40,000 a year. They had also received $118,000 on account of the famous Nakusp road; did the electors suppose that there was any of that in the treasury? It was a notable fact that although the government had a majority on the public accounts committee they could not deny the fact that the $118,000 had vanished, part of it no doubt in helping to pay for Col. Baker's trip to England. (Hear, hear and applause.) Then there was the intestate estates fund and the suitors' fund; these were all spent. They expect to get by the end of June a good deal of money for taxes that become due, and on the first or second of July they will receive from the Dominion government one half the Dominion subsidy, which will amount to over $100,000, but the latter sum should be on hand to meet the expenditure for the next fiscal year.

Mr. McLellan—Tell us what they did with all that money, Mr. Beaven, give us the other side of the story? Tell us how many roads and bridges they built with all that money?

Hon. Mr. Beven—No doubt if you read all this immoral literature that is scattered around you will find what they say they did with it. I am merely speaking of the funds they spent that they had no right to spend. I am not saying that they put a dollar of it into your pocket improperly, Mr. McLellan, although you may have made some roads and bridges for them, and very good roads and bridges too, I have no doubt. (Great cheers and laughter.) I would point out that it is an illegal expenditure unless authorized by the legislature.

Mr. Beaven proceeded to say that these great floods would cost the country another $200,000 to replace the bridges and roads which have been destroyed.

A voice—That is all through the government.

Mr. Beaven—Oh, no; it is not, and you cannot get me to say it is (cheers and laughter). He didn't know but what he had taken up too much time (no, no, go on; give them some more; give them plenty of it). It was, the greatest nonsense in the world for the Government people to tell the electors that if this government were not returned, the country would stagnate; they are pretty active among the people about election time when they cannot afford to ignore them, but all this is soon forgotten when a set of puppets to do one man's will is sent to represent the people in the legislature. The fact is that this government has been so long in power that they have come to look upon the people as their puppets, with whom they could do anything they liked (hear, hear), and that no matter whom the people put in power, they should make a change of government. As far as Mr. Davie is concerned, he is the legislature himself; it is on the statute books that he ignores the legislature, his acts become law afterwards because he has a majority in the house who will vote for a coat of whitewash for him and his government; but he ignores the legislature altogether. Take the means they adopted to pass the estimates last session. Did the people think that such a course could be followed in any free legislature? ("No!") "I am not very strong myself," said Mr. Beaven, "but I am thankful to say that I was able to stay in that house all night till daylight, and then went home to get my breakfast, and came back to fight for your rights, for the rights of the people." (Great and prolonged cheering.) "I say that such a government is a disgrace to any free people in any country." (Renewed cheering.)

Mr. Jeeves asked Mr. Beaven if it was not a fact that work on the government buildings was done by the foot, and that they could therefore be stopped at any time. Mr. Beaven pointed out that the money having been borrowed for a specific purpose must be spent for that purpose and that alone.

Mr. Jeeves—But you were saying just now that there was money spent for other purposes than it was voted for, or borrowed for?

Hon. Mr. Beaven—The man you are supporting does that; but no constitutional or honest minister would do it. (Great Cheers.)

Mr. Jeeves got on the platform to say something in support of the government but the meeting would not hear him, and he had to retire after a very few words. Mr. Braden rose to move a vote of thanks to the chairman, but there were general cries for Dutton, and the labor candidate went on the platform through a hurricane of cheers. He was opposed to the present government for several reasons. A voice at the end of the hall—Because you did not get a job.

Mr. Dutton—I want to tell you that the man who is doing all the talking down there is a disappointed employee himself; he was laid off the opposition paper where he was working, and now he is going around making as much as he can of it. (Cheers.) Proceeding, Mr. Dutton said that working men could not support the present government if they looked after their own interest, because they could see that there never was a resolution or a bill introduced into the present legislature for the benefit of the working man that had not been voted down by brute force. The fact that the parliament buildings were let without a clause protecting resident workingmen of the province was enough to condemn the present government. (Cheers.) Alien labor is brought over here to build those buildings, while the men who live and pay taxes here are going around the town idle. (A voice—Gone to Seattle, some of them.) Yes; no doubt they have taken Mr. Turner's advice to the Indians up north, and have gone to the land of the free. (Cheers.) Can you show me any permanent work in this province that has been built, and that would pay for the money that has been spent? asked Mr. Dutton. Mr. Baker's trip to England did not benefit this province, unless he had been able to sell his ranch. Dr. Davie had a trip to Ottawa to attend a conference of medical men there; he was paid thirteen hundred dollars for that, and when he arrived the conference was over. (Laughter.) Mr. Dutton prophesied that the electors would bear these and many other things of a like character in mind on the 7th of July, and would express their dissatisfaction with the government that was so regardless of the wishes of the people.

Mr. Marchant asked Mr. Helmcken if it was his opinion that all wages should be preferential; and Mr. Helmcken answered in the affirmative. He was not, however, in answer to a further question from the same gentleman, in favor of abolishing the property qualification for municipal elections, because he considered that the property owners, whose property was to be pledged for money borrowed should have a voice, and that some respect should be paid to their wishes in the matter of borrowing. As to manhood suffrages in municipalities, he said we practically have that now. He would also have the landlord have some preferential claim for arrears of rent, as if you discouraged the landlord, you discourage improvements, and therefore the landlord should have a certain amount of protection. He would also introduce the English system of chattel mortgage or bill of sale, by which all the articles affected by the mortgage have to be specified in the document.

Mr. Braden said in reply to Mr. Marchant, that he was not in favor of abolishing the $200 deposit which candidates had to put up, because there had to be some kind of a check placed on the nomination of candidates to render possible the election of a proper man.

Mr. Marchant asked Mr. Rithet if it be true, as he supposed it was, that the promoters of the Canada Western railway proposed to make a profit out of the enterprise, it would be by alienating the land from the country, and obtaining a large money bonus from the people; would it not be infinitely preferable for the government to make this a government work, build the railway, retain the land and reap the profit? (Applause.)

Mr. Rithet said he had not touched upon the Canada Western because, as he told the people at the meeting in the theatre, it was in such a condition that he could say nothing about it just now, but as soon as he could learn definite information of the negotiations which are now pending in the old country, he would lay the matter before the public. (Hear, hear.) Mr. Rithet then addressed himself shortly to Mr. Beaven's remarks, and Mr. McMillan asked him to explain the letter to the government regarding lifting the embargo on Chinese to build the Canada Western.

Mr. Rithet said that he had not seen the letter till it was published. There were marks of disbelief among the audience, but Mr. Rithet repeated slowly and firmly: "What I say is true, and I can prove it, every word (applause). I was not in the city when the letter was written; it was written by those who had the handling of the charter at the time."

There were signs of another opposition storm breaking out, and Mr. Helmcken took the cue to rush in the closing vote of thanks to the chairman, which brought to an end the best opposition meeting that has been held during the campaign.

The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

THE PENITENTIARY INQUIRY.

Commissioner Drake Directing a Search Light on the Institution.

A Deputy Warden Who Gave Away Lots of Things—Judge McCreight's Horse.

News-Advertiser.

The adjourned royal commission of investigation into the management of the British Columbia penitentiary was resumed Thursday morning at 10.30 in the penitentiary buildings.

Mr. McBride, at the request of his counsel, was called, and deposed:

We have from time to time bought sheep for the penitentiary.

Mr. Jeuns: I ask this question because it appears from the newspaper reports as if the whole flock of sheep had sprung from the original two.

His Lordship: I understood Mr. McBride to say so myself.

Witness, continuing: The deputy warden had charge of the mutton, but did not report as to consumption. I know nothing of the appropriation of mutton.

The netx wituess called was James Miller: I am baker instructor in the penitentiary. I have charge of the flour. I never have to account for it. I have a bread book, which is sent up with the bread. I send the flour sacks up stairs. I have been here six years. The deputy warden took about four thousand sacks away. I saw them put on the cart and taken from the premises. The sacks were fifty pound sacks. Now we use one hundred pound sacks, which are used on the farm. I weighed the dough, not the flour. There is no waste of bread in the bakery. I don't know who drove out the sacks. I have no complaints to make personally against any of the officers. I have not been rebuked in the presence of convicts.

By Mr. Morrison: Do you know if Mr. Fitzsimmons had anything to do with the disposal of the sacks, except that he ordered their removal?

Witness: I do not.

Are some of the bags not used on the premises?

Not the fifty pound bags. The large ones are used for potatoes.

James Fitzsimmons was then called, and deposed: I am deputy warden of the penitentiary. I am familiar with the rules. I have to discharge the duties of chief keeper. I have been absent without the warden's knowledge, but only for half a day. I ring the safety bell after 12 and at 6 o'clock. I have as far as possible did not think it necessary. I made a The key of the safety box is kept by Mr. Carroll.

The guard on night duty keeps the keys of the safety box at night. An account has been kept of the duties of the guards. I did not call the roll every morning. I did not think it necessary. I made a regular examination of the arms. I never saw anything wrong with them. I examined them once a month at least in the armory. I had not instructions from the warden as to the duties to be performed by the officers each day. I assigned every man's duty. I have not a book to show this. The officers have been practiced in the use of arms probably twice in the year. We have never kept a book for practices. I did not always visit the shops twice every day. I would be doing other duties then.

Do your books show what these duties are?

Witness: I have no book for this purpose. The warden knew that I did not fulfill my duties. I did not report to the warden as to the state of the ams every year. I did not always examine the locks. I have had the blacksmith with me examining them, but can't give any dates of examination.

By the Judge: The blacksmith swears he has never done so.

Witness: Well, he has.

(The officers' duties book brought.)

Witness, continuing, said: This book is in my own writing and that of my clerk. I had no book to keep but that. I was never furnished with any other. I never made a report of the condition of the locks to the warden in writing except when I came here first. I think I have reported on the condition of the arms about a dozen times since we opened the prison. I have reported verbally to the warden when I was going out with the gang. I have had two and three guards with myself and 52 men when I went out with the gang to instruct the work to be done. I have had to do the work for years, as nobody else could do it. The work was clearing land, ditching and fencing. I considered the officers incompetent to direct the work, and consider some of them are now. The place was surrounded with bush when we came here, and I was afraid the convicts would run away. I have taken special care to keep the place clean. I may say that the steward has not always obeyed my orders. I have reported him to the warden. I did not make these reports in writing. During the last year I have done so on three or four occasions. It was not the steward's duty to see that the engine and boiler were in good order. The engine and boiler have never been used. I can't tell the condition of the mangle. I have inspected the baths and seen that they were clean. The chimneys were swept about eight times during the twenty years. I never weighed the coal, but have sent the men to take it in. I have looked after economy in the use of coal. I have inspected the stable probably once a week. Mr. McGinnis has charge of the dormitory cells. He should look after them and see that they are in order. That duty was allotted him by the warden and myself.

By the Judge: Why did you interfere with the warden's duties?

Witness: I was sent here from Kingston to open this prison, with instructions from Inspector Moylan to consult with the warden and to be consulted by the warden as to the management. I have not supervision over the clothing. I consider it my duty to look after the whitewashing of the walls when I could.

By the Judge: Why did you do other men's duties when you could not fulfil your own?

Witness: Because it was a matter of necessity.

Did you report to the warden that you could not fulfil your duties?

Witness: I don't think that ever came up. The understanding was that we were to assist each other. He was to do my duty as far as he could. I did not keep the convict book. The keeper kept it. I never gave any directions with regard to the entries. I have employed convicts outside the penitentiary, and entries for work were put in the book.

Can you show me the entries in your book?

The book was then fully examined, but no entries of work done outside were found.

Witness produced some receipts for work done outside.

By Mr. Morrison: With regard to the keep of Justice McCreight's horse. The first money paid—a cheque for $30—was forced on me. He said it was to get tobacco for the man who had charge of it. I replied that he had all he required. I gave the convict $10 on his discharge from the place. The second time he offered me money I told him I had still some of the first money. He told me to take it and do what I liked with it. I said I would give it to the convicts going out. Before leaving on a trip to the Old Country Judge McCreight offered me more money. I said I could not take it. I told him I would give it to the mother of the orphanage, and he agreed. I gave $50 to the orphanage when I returned from the Old Country.

Afterwards I again met Judge McCreight, and he said he had more money for the orphanage. He sent cheques or money to the amount of $130. I called on him and asked what the money was for. He said for tobacco for the convicts. I said they had plenty of tobacco, and he said, "Do what you like with it." I gave $120 to the orphanage and $5 to a convict going out. Next I got a cheque for $50.25 from the judge. I think from Cuba. The warden in the meantime informed me that the horse was being charged at the rate of $8 a month. I paid the warden $80 for ten months' keep and then gave the judge a receipt for the money.

The court then adjourned for an hour and a half for lunch.

After adjournment Mr. Fitzsimmons was recalled.

By Mr. Morrison: The farm report for 1893 was made up in this way. An officer or convict weighed the produce and I entered it when I made up the account.

Mr. Morrison: Can you produce any of the notes of weights given by the persons weighing?

Witness: No, I destroyed them as soon as the annual report was made up. I kept my books within the spirit of the rules, but I could not set up to them. I don't pretend to be a bookkeeper. The understanding was that the warden and the accountant were to keep the books I was unable to keep. A report was then handed in for Mr. Fitzsimmons in reply to the charges made by Guard Quilty in connection with the investigation. The black cow Guard Quilty spoke of was my own. I remember some vegetables going to the orphanage, but don't remember the quantity. There were no potatoes sent to the orphanage. On Christmas eve I made a present of some vegetables to the orphanage. I sent over two loads of old lumber to the orphanage that we could make no use of here in the penitentiary. The balance was thrown into the Fraser River. One of the Sisters' men was passing at the time and he asked me for it. We have not smoked hams here for six years. The warden and I kept some pigs in the place. I know I have taken over short sentence convicts to do work at the orphanage. On one occasion we laid a drain in one afternoon. I asked permission of the warden to take them. I offered pay to the warden and Mr. Keary in 1890 or 1891 for convicts working outside and they said it was unnecessary. On one occasion the money I offered was returned. The sisters of the orphanage have rendered services to the penitentiary. They sent a woman here for 22 days and nights to attend a female convict who was ill. They never have been paid for this. Tallow candles have also been given the penitentiary by them for which they have not been paid. I think I have always had a sufficient number of guards in charge of convicts.

By his lordship—And yet when one guard had charge of two convicts one got clear away.

Witness continuing: With reference to the cloth I sold Quilty, I was told by the accountant I could do as I liked with it. I received $25 for it. I have never said anything to offend an officer in the presence of a convict. I have never rebuked [illegible] of a convict; not to any amount. I rebuked Guard McPherson for leaving his gang. I have encouraged him in doing his duty, but never obstructed him. I have known convicts to have the key of the meat cellar. I don't remember taking any pork out of the store. Last February I took a ton of coal to the orphanage, which I borrowed by permission of the warden, and I paid myself for a ton which was returned to the cellar. A pound of bread was never taken to the orphanage to my knowledge, with the exception of cake made from my own flour. With regard to the fruit, the warden and I have a little garden in the institution and he got some, and I got some, which I disposed of in town. The trees and plants were ours. I have never obstructed the steward's work in any way. I have never changed convicts' duties, except for the good of the penitentiary. I never knew of a convict or an officer spying since we opened. A convict never had my key to the front door. There was never a report made to that effect. I have never been under the influence of liquor since the opening of the prison. I have never had more than one cow in the place at the one time. I never used penitentiary meal for my cow. What McGinnis says of my cow [illegible] I left Dorlin I was going out. I have never been absent when the warden was away.

The hams Coutts took to the orphanage were mine. I have ordered goods without a requisition in cases of emergency. I don't think the men in Coutts' shop were ever left unguarded. I remember cement going to the orphanage. That was when a drain burst. I went over with two convicts and Coutts to put it right. I remember taking the pigs. I [illegible] of the warden. The lamps [illegible] were my own. Coutts has never gone round with me inspecting the locks, etc. I may have countermanded orders of the warden. I don't think I did. I gave three or four loaves to some Indians. The steward's statements are not true. I have never sent convicts out with an insufficient number of guards. I brought the bolts Coutts referred to back from the orphanage. There was work done for the orphanage by requisition.

By his lordship—It looks as if the orphanage and the penitentiary were run together.

Witness: Altogether the convicts have not worked outside more than ten days. I consider I have kept the spirit of the rules as far as in my power. There was no complaint against me until the last year. From what the officers have said at this investigation I perceive that a ring has been formed against me for what reason I do not know. I have reprimanded Roman Catholic convicts. I never made any distinction. There are three convicts who have gone over to the Roman Catholic church recently. I always sent in my reports to the warden before sending them to the inspector. McGinnes might have been left alone in the building a couple of mornings with six or seven convicts. I cross-examined McMaster after the shooting of Kennedy for his own good. I never sent sacks out of the penitentiary. There was no mark of distinction on the warden's and mine and the penitentiary pigs. Within the last ten years I think we have killed 100 pigs. We kept no account of the sheep killed each year. I keep a bank account. I cashed Justice McCreight's check and gave the sisters the money. We have about 14 acres under cultivation. In 1893 we had about ten acres. The land would stand from ten to twelve tons of potatoes per acre. Last year we had ten and a half acres in hay. We produce four tons per acre. I don't know how many pigs were killed last year. We would have killed 20. I don's know how many sheep we killed. I think we killed ten. There was one calf. I have spoken to the warden about passes from one part of the penitentiary to the other for convicts.

The court then adjourned until 10.30 this morning.

DIED.

DUNLOP—On June the 28th, at the residence of F. T. Grigg, Nanaimo, of asthmatic pneumonia, John T. Dunlop, aged 62 years.

The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from Hayward's undertaking parlors, Victoria, and at the Reformed Episcopal church a few minutes later. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

"It has cured others and it will cure you" is true only of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The motto suits the medicine and the medicine suits the motto. What better assurance could you have that a medicine will cure you than the fact that it has cured such multitudes of others?

Rheumatism cured in a day.—South American Rheumatic Cure for Rheumatism and neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose generally benefits. 75 cents. Sold by Geo. Morrison.

Use Gibbon's Toothache gum, sold druggists.
